

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

RALEIGH ORTHOPAEDIC CAREERS PAGE

Q: How do I check the status of my resume?

Raleigh Orthopaedic receives a large volume of resumes each day and we are unable to personally contact each applicant. We will contact you via telephone or e-mail if your background and experience is a match with the job opportunity for which you applied.

Please note, resumes are not kept on file. Applicants must apply for each position they are interested in. The Careers Link is updated on Thursdays.

Q: Are there positions that require work shifts and/or weekends?

For the most part, positions at Raleigh Orthopaedic are Monday through Friday with no evenings, holidays or weekends required. Typical hours of operation are 8:00am to 6:00pm. However, there are several departments who must operate on a different schedule. Please review the schedule requirements for each specific position.

Q: Would having a criminal record affect one's chance of getting a job with Raleigh Orthopaedic?

Applicants with a criminal record are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Be honest and forthright concerning your background during the interview and application process. Applicants that are found to have falsified their application will be rejected.

Q: My information (address, phone number, e-mail address) has changed. How do I update you?

You can update your contact information by sending an email to hr@raleighortho.com. Please make sure that you indicate in the subject line this is "Contact Information Update".
